SHUBERTS OUT OF HIPPODROME; DILLINGHAM IN

Retiring Managers Give Up Lease—Blame Movies for Failure.

PLAN CONTINENTAL MUSIC HALL SHOWS

Famous Eden Musee Also Yields to March of the Film Show.

Two of the most widely known places of amusement in New York capitulated yesterday to the movies. The Shuberts announced that they had abandoned the Hippodrome because of the growing popularity of the film show, while the Eden Musee and its "World in Wax" in West Twenty-third street went into the hands of a receiver largely for the same reason.

The Eden Musee was started in 1884 and ever since has offered a form of amusement peculiarly different from any other. Historical events and matters of current history have been displayed there through the medium of wax figures to the delight of hundreds of thousands.

The Hippodrome was younger, but just as much of an institution as the Musee. It was started eleven years ago with huge spectacular offerings.

PROGRESS OF MOVIES HELD RESPONSIBLE

Retiring Concern Says Public Has Gone to Film Spectacles.

The Hippodrome changed hands twice yesterday. The Shuberts abandoned the building, announcing that they would not renew their lease, and the property immediately reverted to the United States Realty and Improvement Company, which, through its operating concern, the Forty-third Street Realty Company, then leased the house to Charles B. Dillingham within six hours. Mr. Dillingham takes possession Saturday night, when the moving picture policy now in force will be discontinued. He will immediately begin preparations to open in September with a new spectacular production to be called "All America." The Hippodrome, under his direction, will present entertainments modeled to some extent after institutions of the kind in Europe, where auditions and stages of unusual size are more common than in this country.

The Shuberts in giving up their lease named pictures for the lack of interest in the spectacle. They stated during the last few years. A statement given out yesterday said: "The Shuberts are frank to state that they do not desire to operate the Hippodrome any more, as the possibilities of this property have been exhausted. The moving picture have hurt the Hippodrome in two ways. In the first place, the people who thronged the galleries to see the Hippodrome show, have been attracted to the numerous theaters around the places where they live. Secondly, the thrill which used to be the characteristic of the Hippodrome has been copied, introduced and improved upon by the moving picture industry, and whereas the Hippodrome used to attract thousands of people, a thousand or more persons on the stage is possible now to see two or three hundred people in a moving picture for the expenditure of a nickel or dime."

Dillingham Sole Director.

It was stated on behalf of Mr. Dillingham that he would be the sole director of the Hippodrome and that the house was representing no other interests. The terms of the lease were not made public. A statement was given out yesterday that the Hippodrome show is one for a patriotic picture play entitled "All America," written by an author whose name has never been connected with the Hippodrome. There will be a patriotic interest in this play and the Shuberts will be the first to show it. The Shuberts have been in the business of the Hippodrome for many years and have been successful in the past. The Shuberts have been in the business of the Hippodrome for many years and have been successful in the past.

Has Had Notable Career.

With the present change in management, the New York Hippodrome has been in the hands of a little more than ten years, as the largest place of amusement of its kind in the United States. The Hippodrome was built by Thompson and Bundy on the profits of their Luna Park enterprise in Coney Island.

KING CONSTANTINE WORSE.

Condition of Greek Sovereign Remains Very Critical.

LONDON, June 7.—A message from Athens by way of Berlin states that the condition of King Constantine is very serious. At midnight the King's temperature was 103.3, his pulse 125 and his respiration 26, according to a bulletin posted in Athens at that time.

The physicians remained in the palace throughout the night, while the streets outside were thronged with anxious crowds. The rise in temperature, the physicians said, was a natural reaction following the operation.

To-day's official bulletin of the King's health says that he is in a "critical" condition. Premier Gounaris and most of the members of the Cabinet are staying in the palace constantly.

The attending physicians are alarmed because of the rapid fluctuations in the King's temperature, says a late message from Athens.

LIECHTENSTEIN IN WAR ZONE.

Principality's Neutrality Violated by Austria.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. BERNE, Switzerland, June 7.—Austria has formally declared that the principality of Liechtenstein is within the war zone and therefore under Austrian censorship. This is regarded here as a breach of Liechtenstein's neutrality, which was declared at the outbreak of the war and upon the faith of which Switzerland and the rest of Europe has allowed the transportation of wheat to Liechtenstein from France.

Liechtenstein is a principality situated within the borders of Austria but with an independent government, at the head of which is the reigning Prince, Johann II. The population in 1914 was 10,716.

TAXI HELPS WOMAN TO DESERT HER BABY

Hands Boy to Stranger in Street Car to Hold and Then Disappears.

Mrs. Edith M. Archer of 39 Linden place, Reel Bank, N. J., accompanied by her sister, Miss Ada Larkin of 250 East 104th street, walked into the East 104th street station yesterday evening and placed a fine fat baby upon the desk before Lieut. Shevlin.

"I hate to get rid of the little dear," said Mrs. Archer, "but I can't take care of him and I was told to bring him here."

She told the story: "I was riding uptown in a first class trolley car at about 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon when at Seventeenth street a woman who was sitting across the aisle with the baby got up, put the infant in Mrs. Archer's arms and said: 'I am sorry, but I must go. I have a moment's time to spare. I want to step to the rear of the car to adjust my skirt.'"

Mrs. Archer took the baby and at the next corner the car stopped. Then Mrs. Archer saw the woman get off and run to a taxicab which was waiting at the curb. The woman jumped in and the car started south. It all happened too quickly for Mrs. Archer to make an arrest.

Mrs. Archer's story indicates that the whole affair was prearranged. She is certain the young woman said nothing to her about the baby, but she was waiting for her. The door of the taxicab was open, the engine was running and the chauffeur started with every appearance of haste to get away.

She said the woman who handed her the baby was about 30 years old and well dressed in a dark suit.

The woman and Lieut. Smith examined them with care for a possible clue, but failed to find any. The only pieces of jewelry were several gold bangles. Mrs. Smith thought the baby, who was a boy, was about three weeks old. He was sent to Bellevue Hospital.

DOCTOR RIDES IN A BUCKET.

Goes Under Broadway in Effort to Save Subway Worker.

Policeman Canavan of the West Thirtieth street station and Dr. McChesnie of New York Hospital were lowered in a bucket from the roof of the Twenty-eighth street station in an effort to reach the life of Andrew Ivaniski, 30 years old, of 140 East Fourteenth street, a laborer, who had been injured in the subway cut. Ivaniski, who was employed by the United States Realty and Improvement Company, died before they reached him.

The laborer attempted to prevent a collision between two dirt car trains at the intersection of the subway and the street. He was struck by the rear of the car and his head was thrown into the air. He was found by the man who brought him to the hospital in a bucket.

CANCER KILLS 4,000 A YEAR.

New York City's Yearly Toll Half That of the State.

ALBANY, June 7.—Cancer is claiming 4,000 victims annually in New York city alone, according to statistics compiled by the State Health Department. The toll in the whole State is 8,000 annually.

To check the spread of the disease, which has continued to increase with the increase in the population, the State Health Department has organized a campaign. Dr. Herman M. Biggs, State Commissioner of Health, has instituted a statewide campaign. He intends to carry on a fight through the physicians, the schools and other institutional mediums.

THEFT OF PAPERS AT ANNAPOLIS CHARGED

Professors' Desks Rifled, Admiral Fullam Tells Court of Inquiry.

"CRIBBING" OLD PRACTICE

Ensign Says "Leaks" Were Frequent for Years—Many Middies Benefited.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 7.—That efforts of midshipmen to obtain advance information as to the questions to be asked on their examinations were systematic and continuous, that a large proportion of the class benefited by them at the last examination and that theft was resorted to for the purpose of securing the questions was the startling fact brought out at the first session of the court of inquiry appointed by Secretary Daniels to investigate the use of unfair means in recitations and examinations at the Naval Academy.

The matter was brought to the attention of the Department by ten recent cases where midshipmen have been recommended for dismissal. Three of these have been dismissed and have left the institution, and the recommendation of Supt. Fullam in the cases of seven more are in the hands of the Secretary of the Navy. Action is not likely to be taken, however, until the present court completes its work.

The court is composed of Capt. Robert W. Russell, president; Capt. Andrew T. Long and Lieut. Commander Louis C. De Stiegar, additional members, and Lieut. Commander E. T. Watts, judge advocate. One of the first acts of the court was to direct that all of its proceedings should be open to the public.

Had Access to Questions.

It appeared from the testimony given before the board of investigation, and made public for the first time to-day, that members of all classes of midshipmen admitted that the majority of them had access to the questions.

LABOR MAY LEAD WAR PROTEST IN U. S.

Congressman Buchanan to Urge Conference of Union Men at Once for Peace.

WILL SEE BRYAN TO-DAY

No Conflict Unless Invasion, Is Plea—Rumor of Carnegie Backing.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—A conference of organized labor from all sections of the United States to protest against war, except in case of invasion, is one of the probabilities of the near future. The question will have consideration at the hands of the executive committee of the Federation of Labor at a meeting to be held in Atlantic City this week.

The author of the idea, Representative Buchanan of Illinois, one of the labor leaders in Congress, arrived in Washington to-day. He hopes to have a talk to-morrow with Secretary of State Bryan. After a call at the State Department Mr. Buchanan will proceed to Atlantic City, where he will meet Samuel Gompers and other members of the executive committee of the federation.

Mr. Buchanan will urge that labor meet in a great conference and protest against war with Germany or any other nation on the ground that conflicts between nations are waged primarily for commercial or territorial aggrandizement and that the workers of the world are the principal sufferers.

The Illinois member, who represents what is known as the "labor group" in Congress, declared to-night that he would urge Mr. Gompers and the other federation leaders in Atlantic City to decide immediately on a national conference, expressing the belief that any delay in the matter would only play into the hands of what he described as the "war party" in the United States.

Bryan Not Aware.

Asked if the Secretary of State had any knowledge of the movement he is trying to further, Mr. Buchanan replied: "Not that I am aware of."

Reports preceded Mr. Buchanan's arrival in Washington that he had become affiliated with certain organizations financed by Andrew Carnegie, with a view to persuading organized labor, particularly the federation, to take action against war.

Mr. Buchanan made it clear that at this time in the world's affairs he did not believe the United States should take up arms except in self-defense. He was of the opinion that labor leaders generally shared this view of the situation. He insisted that there were no questions in controversy between the United States and Germany that would justify a recourse to arms.

He pointed out that commercial greed prompted men to seek the conquest of the oceans. It was his opinion that American and American ships should keep out of the way.

"There is no justification for war except to stop invasion," declared Mr. Buchanan. "The Colorado strike struck deeper at the American Republic than the sinking of the Lusitania. I do not, of course, justify the attack on the Lusitania, but it is one of those acts that we must keep in mind when nations descend to the barbarism of war. We must keep our ships and our people out of the way of the war zone. We must avoid trouble. We must expose ourselves to such hazards as we must for the desire for gain."

He said that in the majority of instances.

Blames Warship Makers.

"In my opinion the people interested in the manufacture of warships are in great part responsible for war sentiment. To some extent this interest seems to be centered in and around what is known as the armor plate trust. In the last Congress and in preceding sessions efforts were made to secure large appropriations for the construction of armor plate. I do not think the armor plate people did their own way to a considerable extent. It is the very same people who would profit by war, and you may be sure that they have taken no steps to prevent it."

Mr. Buchanan said that he had cooperated with any other organizations than labor unions and labor leaders in furthering the "peace idea."

"Every labor organization that has met since the beginning of the war has passed resolutions expressing the hope that the United States would not become involved in the trouble," said Mr. Buchanan. "The laboring people feel deeply on this subject. They know that war enriches only a few and that it costs the many."

Mr. Buchanan said that for some weeks he has been making trips in an effort to arouse the laboring people to the fact that war would mean the end of their own way of life.

RUMANIA WAITS HARVEST TO FIGHT

Untrained Reservists Receive Orders to Report to the Colors at Once.

PEOPLE KEEN FOR WAR

Pro-German Party Leader Replaced by Opponent Who Is Pro-Ally.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. BUCHAREST, June 7.—Rumania's first step toward entering the great European conflict was taken yesterday, when the King signed the initial mobilization order, and no doubt remains in the minds of any one here that the Government has definitely decided to join the Allies in the war against Germany and Austria.

The mobilization order which has just been signed is only a partial one, as it is understood that unless the unforeseen happens Rumania will not enter the war until after the harvest. Most of the trained reservists are being sent to their homes and their places will be taken as rapidly as possible by untrained men, who will do the colors for short periods of steady training. In this manner the entire army will be prepared to go to the front when the wheat has been gathered.

Meanwhile troops have been massed along the frontier and the five army corps which compose the Rumanian army is already being retrained. All able-bodied men between the ages of 18 and 21 are conscripted to hold themselves at the disposal of the Ministry of War in time of peace, and these youths are now being trained in their home districts. When these recruits are ready for service Rumania will be able to place in the field an army of more than 200,000 well-trained men. With the militia and reserves the total strength can be brought to 300,000.

Special instructions were sent out to-day by Mr. Bratianu, Minister of War, to the commanders of each army corps, and no effort will be spared to have the men in the best of condition when the time comes for the actual intervention of Rumania.

The news of the mobilization order has met with universal approval by the people and demonstrations in favor of war are occurring in all parts of the country.

MARGHILOAN IS OUT.

New Party Leader Issues Statement Calling Followers to Flag.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, June 7.—A new scheme invitable that Rumania, already bled, will fall in line with the Allies. The pro-German, Alexander Marghiolan, has been released from his duties as leader of the Conservative party in favor of Mr. Bratianu, who is in favor of the Entente powers, has replaced him. He has issued a manifesto to his followers to rally to the flag in the interest of the country. The incident is regarded as likely to affect Rumania's attitude.

RUMANIA THREATENED.

German Paper Censures Her for Hindering Dual Alliance.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. LONDON, June 7.—In copies of the Cologne Gazette received here it is said editorially:

"A considerable part of the Rumanian army is ready to go over entirely to the Russian camp. Rumania's neutrality, so-called, has hindered free traffic of the Dual Alliance with Turkey and it did so even when the latter was still neutral. If such conditions obtain, the interest would Austria and Germany have in Rumania's future existence?"

BULGARS LEAVE TURKEY.

General Exodus Begins—Greeks Also Returning Home.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. BULGARIA, June 7.—Bulgarian Consuls in Turkey are urging their nationals to return home and a general exodus of Bulgarians from Constantinople has already begun.

Many Greeks are also leaving, in the face of the fact that King Constantine has returned.
